

IGNORANCE

Some people will take all kinds of medicine from one year to another, and at the same time are always more or less sick, why is this so? Simple because they do not know the cause of their sickness. EYE STRAIN (HYPEROPIA) is the cause of about ninety per cent of all this so called sickness, it is simply a wasting of nerve energy. All the medicine in the world will not cure Hyperopia, properly fitted glasses is the only remedy. If you have confidence in my ability, then come to me, after an examination, I will tell you your condition.

I will take no case unless a promise is made to follow my directions.

I don't want your money unless I can do you good.

FRIDAY FACTS.

Mrs. F. A. McNeely is on the sick list. Chief C. E. Hartford was honored by being elected first vice president of the Volunteer State Firemen's association at Nebraska City yesterday.

The cold wave forecasted by a late dispatch yesterday afternoon has undoubtedly arrived, but is not up to this time as fierce as had been anticipated.

It is expected that the Norfolk delegation to the state meeting of the Volunteer Firemen's association will return on the evening train from the east over the F. E. & M. V.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church met yesterday and organized a missionary society with the following officers: Mrs. L. W. Scudder, president; Mrs. S. F. Sharpless, vice president; Mrs. Ballantyne, secretary and Mrs. Knickerbocker, treasurer.

It is expected that Mr. A. D. Pratt will arrive this evening from California with the remains of Mrs. Pratt. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Second Congregational church at South Norfolk. Interment will be in Prospect Hill cemetery.

H. T. Sonnenschein advertises a sale of his stock and farm implements to be held at his place nine miles southwest of Stanton on Tuesday, January 28. The stock to be sold includes 100 head of horses, 80 head of cattle and 100 hogs. J. R. Stucker and W. J. Planek will be the auctioneers.

The reception for Rev. W. J. Turner and wife, given in the parlors of the First Congregational church last evening, was a very pleasant affair and largely attended. The ladies of the church furnished and served choice refreshments and the evening was spent in a social and enjoyable manner.

The A. O. U. W. lodge has arranged for a special session Wednesday afternoon in addition to the evening session so that members of the class of initiates who find it impossible or inconvenient to be present during the evening may be admitted in the afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock. Deputy Grand Master Workman F. G. Simmons has now raised the class above the 50 mark and hopes to have the lodge membership at or above 200 after Wednesday.

The Voting Contest.

There is nothing sensational in the result of the voting contest today, Miss Nenow still heading the list by a handsome plurality. Miss Allbery again advances to third place. It is known that a great deal of interest is being taken in this contest and that the coupon of nearly every city subscriber is being harbored for the final effort, and it would not be at all surprising if the vote of some of the leaders runs up into the thousands when the contest closes Monday noon. The coupon will be printed for the last time tomorrow evening.

It is intended that the young lady who is the winner in the contest shall be able to give her five friends the most enjoyable evening possible. The play "The Taming of the Shrew," as presented by Mr. Hanford and Miss Grantly, is strictly high class and is well worth attending. The seats selected are considered the best in the house, but the winner may have the option of changing them for the most desirable box in the Auditorium if she chooses. D. D. Brunson, proprietor of the livery and hack line, who has become interested in the outcome of the contest, has offered to place one of his finest carriages at the disposal of the young ladies, and will call for them and take them home after the theatre. C. P. Parish, grocer, has concluded that the happiness of the young ladies will not be complete unless he makes a contribution, and he will see that the party is well supplied with some of his choicest confections.

Following is the result of the ballot at noon today:

Verene Nenow, Johnson Dry Goods Co.....	145
Mae McNeil, Baum Bros.....	102
Nettie Allbery, Fair store.....	92
Anna Hermann, W. W. Roberts.....	78
Mrs. Ingalls, Beeler Bros.....	44
Eula Wise, Mapes & Hazen.....	44
Marie Bley, Johnson Dry Goods Co.....	20
Nora Conway, Johnson Dry Goods Co.....	20
Mae Durland, Durland Trust Co.....	5
Anna Zuelow, Fair store.....	5
Anna Seymour, Durland Trust Co.....	5
Lottie Kuhl, Norfolk Shoe Co.....	1
Mabel Cooley, Telephone Co.....	1

A Welcome Announcement.

Every scholar who is familiar with Shakespeare's immortal comedy "The Taming of the Shrew" will be delighted with the announcement that a grand scenic revival of the play will be given at the Auditorium on January 28 by Charles B. Hanford and a strong supporting company headed by Helen Grantly. This play, however, does not appeal simply to scholars or persons of a studious frame of mind. It is so replete with mirthful incidents and amusing situations that all classes of theatregoers are satisfied by its presentation. Wherever the piece has been produced this season the reports say that it has been played to immense audiences who have signified their approval by frequent bursts of laughter and hearty applause. Mr. Hanford and Miss Grantly are said to have secured success in the leading roles of Petruchio and Katherine.

Take dinner and supper with the Presbyterian ladies tomorrow in the old Fair store building. Dinner 25 cents and supper 15 cents.

If you want stamp photos now is your time to get them—24 for 25 cents at Andrews' gallery.

Present for Your Favorite!

THE DAILY NEWS will give out Choice Seats at

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW"

to the most popular saleslady or office girl in Norfolk.

"VOTE FOR YOUR CHOICE."

THE DAILY NEWS has ever been alive to the interests of education and has always endeavored to extend the scope of the acquisition of knowledge whenever an opportunity presents itself. With this end in view, this paper has purchased exclusive seats for the performance of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," which the well known star, Charles B. Hanford and the beautiful Nebraska girl, Helen Grantly, will present in this city at the Auditorium, on Tuesday, January 28. The DAILY NEWS will present these seats to the saleslady or office girl who will receive the largest number of votes. (The plan of voting is simple. All that is required for the casting of a vote is to fill and cut out the coupon printed below and send it to this office. Inasmuch as there are six seats, the lady for whom the largest number of ballots is cast can invite five of her friends to be her guests on the evening of January 28. "The Taming of the Shrew" is one of the most amusing as well as instructive of Shakespeare's comedies. It has not been revived for several years and the production is said to be adequate in every respect. THE DAILY NEWS will announce the progress of the balloting each day by publishing the list of contestants with the number of their votes.
